Biometric training was carried out in College of Agriculture and Veterinary Science (CAVS) on Friday 28th July 2017. This is the first University of Nairobi college to be trained on how to use the system and the targeted trainees included Deans, Associate Deans, Directors, Deputy Directors, all the administrators at the Principal's office, the Faculty of Agriculture, Faculty of Veterinary Medicine, security officers, ICT staff and Wangari Maathai Institute for Peace and Environmental Studies. The biometric system components are: camera, biometric scanner, signature pad, laptop, and lamp. These are used to capture student information within five minutes. The training was officially opened by the Principal CAVS, Prof. S. G. Kiama. The facilitators of the training were led by the Director ICTC, Mr. Christopher Moturi and Deputy Director MIS, Mr. Paul Kariuki. The system will assist the university to capture student information and ease retrieval of student data. It will also enhance accuracy in student records.
