The fun filled day was held on February 28, 2018 at the University of Nairobi sports ground. The theme was “Enhancing cohesiveness and wellness through sports.” College of Agriculture and Veterinary Sciences was awarded with four trophies; soccer staff team, students’ volleyball and rugby teams and tag of war women team.

The Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Peter Mbithi, urged private sector players to support the development of sports in the universities.

Speaking on behalf of the Cabinet Secretary, Sports and National Heritage, Mr. Rashid Mohammed the chief guest, Mr. Haron Komen from the Ministry of Sports called upon institutions of higher learning to establish sports scholarships that will encourage more students to pursue sports as a career as they nurture their talent. He revealed that plans are underway to establish Annual Sports Awards by the government, whereby sportsmen and women will be celebrated.
