

John M. Omiti, PhD

Dr John M. Omiti is the Executive Director of the Kenya Institute for Public Policy Research & Analysis (KiPPRA). He is involved in providing technical guidance and capacity building on policy and strategy formulation to the Government of Kenya and other stakeholders, with the overall aim of contributing to achievement of national development goals. Before then, he was a principal policy analyst at KIPPRRA for six years. Prior to joining Kippra, he was previously a Senior Research Fellow at the Institute of Policy Analysis and Research (IPAR, Nairobi). At IPAR, Dr. Omiti was responsible for design of Agricultural and Industrial Development Strategies for about six years, where he rose to an acting Executive Director. Before joining IPAR, Dr. Omiti worked as a postdoctoral Research Fellow with the International Crops Research Institute for the Semi-Arid Tropics (ICRISAT, a member of the World Bank's CGIAR) focusing on Natural Resource Management Strategies for small-holder agriculture. Before joining ICRISAT for three years, John Omiti had worked with the Kenya's Civil Service for about eleven years upon graduation from the University of Nairobi.

Dr. Omiti has published widely in refereed journals and books. His research interests are in public policy research focusing on agricultural transformation, food security, regional trade, economic geography, poverty alleviation and institutional development at macro and sectoral levels. Dr. John Omiti holds a PhD in agricultural and applied economics from the University of New England (Australia); a Masters degree in Agricultural Economics and a Bachelors degree in Agriculture from the University of Nairobi, Kenya.

Dr. Omiti has been involved in consultancy work for several organizations in a number of countries including Djibouti, Ethiopia, Kenya, Rwanda, Somalia, Sudan and Uganda. He has collaborated with the Nile Basin Initiative (NBI, Entebbe) on food security studies and regional agricultural trade (with Nile Equatorial Lakes Subsidiary Action Programme). He has conducted consultancy assignments, in multidisciplinary teams, for such organisations as the International Livestock Research Institute (ILRI), Futures Agricultures Consortium (FAC, IDS-Sussex), NGOs (e.g., FARMAFRICA and Action-Aid) and development partners such as FAO, European Union and the World Bank.